Minister of Hospitality

Purpose: We want all those who come to St. Mary to feel welcome and as though they belong. The HM is the very first person, often times, to greet those who are arriving. First impressions are the lasting presence. The key point to keep in mind if you are considering this ministry is that you need to be a very welcoming person.

Qualifications: Arrive 30 minutes prior to liturgy time; make sure that the pews and surrounding area are presentable and ready for the parishioners and guests. Handing our Orders of Worship and bulletins, assisting with preparing for the collection, help those who might be in need of assistance.

The time commitment is dictated by how much time individuals scheduled allows. Most ministers choose a liturgy, Sat 4pm, Sun. 7:30, 9 or 11 and become part of that team and are usually present each week. Schedules can be accommodated if need be.

Note: When emailing please put Hospitality in the subject line.
