WHY A MISSION EXPERIENCE

For centuries Catholics from all walks of life have been taking part in Mission Experiences. From daylong explorations to extended immersion, these experiences form solidarity between those who serve and the served; deepen our prayer lives and offer participants a chance to explore a more spiritual part of their existence.

Mission Experiences are nothing new to St. Mary Catholic Faith Community. For years our Outreach Ministry has been partnering with our sister parish in Latiboliere, Haiti and numerous ministry partners in the Milwaukee area.

Students too have a proud history of service at St. Mary, taking part in Just5days, Indian Reservation Missions and Young Neighbors in Action. This year we bring the experience home with our Hometown Mission Experience. It's a chance to learn more about the Milwaukee area, it's diverse population and serve without a high cost or extended time away from home.

HOW CAN FOOD BE A MEANS TO REDUCE POVERTY?

The vulnerable habitually gather as a community to eat, shop, and share their struggles at food pantries and meal sites. Food service agencies present an opportunity to connect the impoverished to additional social services. Regretfully, meal sites and pantries often lack staff or volunteers with sufficient training to ask the right questions, make good referrals or walk with people as they navigate complex community services. (Riverwest website)

People . . . "come together around food to relieve hunger, improve lives and grow community well-being". Together, volunteers and shoppers alike, we can become a community of generosity – a community well-nourished, well-informed and strengthened to prevail. (Riverwest website)

This summer you can be a part of change in our community...
