

EVENT: DISCOVER YOUR PERSONAL APOSTOLATE

Ordinary life is anything but ordinary. Lay people are called to be salt and light right where they are—in families, neighborhoods, and workplaces.

But what does this look like? The answer may be different for every person; we're all given a unique mission—or “personal apostolate” - in radiating God's love to the world around us.

Come to this event to experience: inspiring video messages, a practical prayer method and ways to discover and act upon your personal apostolate, time for personal reflection and small group discussion.
